HAT IS GOING ON TONIGHT

Man on the Box at Poll's The-

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

John Keefe and Henel Dunham, who appear at this popular playhouse the first half of next week, are well known as two of America's foremost musical somedy stars, and their little skit, Dodo's Friend, which they will play during their engagement here, allows them full scope for their ability as farciurs. Their past record with Ward and Vokes, Henry W. Savage, Elaw & Erlangtr and George M. Cohan's productions have placed them in the front ranks of funmakers.

Mile Armints and James F. Burke, the perfect woman symmest and the funny nerial consedian, will present their latest original novelty on the trapese, serial ladder and bounding bed, and should be a big drawing attraction. Two clever comedians are Wenrick and Waldren, who have a lot of new stuff and get away with it nicely. A shadowgraphist is something that has not been seen here in a long time and as an act of that kind is always a good novelty the management have secured one of the world's greatest in Chescine, who will appear on Monday's bill. The motion pictures for Monday are all of good bright subjects and will surely please.

THE DAIRY FARM.

THE DAIRY FARM.

THE DAIRY FARM.

A production that is expected to collipse all others that have been made by the Poli Players in size, in thornuchness, in detail, in cost and inpublic interest will be presented all ext week at Poli's theater, beginning with the usual Monday matinee. This will be a performance of the best pascral comedy drama ever written. The Dairy Farm, a play that has made millions for its managers during the peat two decades. It is by Eleanor Gerron and was presented for years by the late James H. Wallack to enormous success all over the country. It has not been seen in this city in years, at all, as the expense of producing the has kept managers from taking it on the road.

The local stock company is planning revival of this play that will set a new standard for them. The entire production of scenery and effects has seen built and painted on the stage of foil's theater in this city and is of such magnitude that it has kept everyone busy for several weeks past. The rehassuals have been hard and one and will be continued up to the ery moment of the first performance. The advance sale has been unusually arge week's business, as the interest in this play has been tremendous ever ince it was first announced. Monday fiternoon motte card souvenirs autoraphed by Laurence Dumbar will be given the week as enthusiastic start. Wednesday night will be Owis' night, giving the week as enthusiastic start. Wednesday afternoon souvenine of the stage by the way. Friday afternoon there will be given to some acquainted with Miss sentgomery. The cast of characters as to lollow:

BREED THEATER.

Trailed by an Indian is the powerful story of the Breed this week, and has selighted thousands by its faultless acting, magnificent scenery, and brilliant photography. The most thrilling scene is where the Mexican with kidnapped child upon his back slides down a thousand-foot sand cliff, but is not sufficiently fleet-footed to escape the pursuing Indian servant, who is not to be daunted by such a seeming triffe and finally captures the child and its abductor.

Ramona's Father is another strong Indian picture and contains what is acknowledged to be the most perfect picture-story of the California missions yet made. The costumes and customs are made dominant features in this big film, while the scenery is without a parallel.

The Biograph comedy is, as usual, a laugh maker, and never fails to amuse and entertain the large audiences.

Both Glad to Recommend Parisian Sage the Guaranteed Hair Grower and Dandruff Cure

Mrs. J. R. Burgess writes from 514 Plum St., Danville, Va., June 4, 1916, as follows:

"I have used Parisian Sage and find it to be all you claim for it, and cheerfully recommend it to any one who is suffering from any hair dandruff, or scalp trouble."

fully recommend it to any one who is suffering from any hair dandruff, or scale trouble."

On the same date Ruth Odille Burgers, the charming little daughter of Mrs. Burgess wrote:

"I am only a little girl, but I want to tell what Parisian Sage has done for me. I had a sealp disease that looked like dandruff and when it was combed up there would be a bloody water under the dandruff. Mamma tried everything in the way of hair tonics, without results, until she saw the advertisement of Parisian Sage; she got a bottle and it cured me, but kept on using it. Now I have as beautiful a head of hair as any girl."

Men, women and children, in every section of America who are using ordinary commercial hair tonics should give Parisian Sage a trial. It is so far ahead of all others that one application will prove its great superiority. It is guaranteed by The Lee & Osgood Co. to stop falling hair and itching scalp, and to drive out all dandruff in two weeks or money back. It grows hair in abundance and gives to the hair a lustrous and fascinating appearance. 50 cents a large bottle at The Lee & Osgood Co, and druggists everywhere.

At Trinity Episcopal church there will be holy communion at 9 a. m., morning prayer and sermon at 10.45 a. m., and evening prayer and sermon at 7.30 p. m. The rector will efficiate.

At the Third Baptist church Sunday morning Rev. Robert F. True will preach on The Consecration of Personal Service. In the evening his topic will be Not Far from the Kingdom of Heaven.

Dr. George B. Warns of Chicago, Ill., president of the National Spiritualists' association of America, will speak at the Spiritual academy Sunday morning and evening. Progressive Lyceum will meet at noon. Subject, Individual Responsibility.

To raise $100,000 means five dollars

To raise $100,000 means five dollars per capita on every man, woman and child in the city, and in order to meet the amount large contributions from men of money are being made. The Palmer brothers have contributed almost one-tenth of the total amount and the largest individual subscription at this writing is the $5,000 contributed by Frank L. Palmer.

It is noticeable that aside from a comparatively few very large donations, the bulk of the money is coming from the working classes or those engaged in small business enterprises. It is a genuine popular subscription, and all the contributors are chipping in cheerfully, realizing that the college will be of incalculable benefit to the city and the state. The people have resolved that the $100,000 must be raised and within the time specified, ten days, or the good name of the city will be imperilled. So the good work goes on merrily and there is no doubt as to the result.

When Congressman Higgins got busy he saved the New London naval station from abolishment, and in so doing did good service not only to New London, Norwich and the other places in the Third congressional district, but to the whole state of Connecticut, in retaining the only naval station in the state. He explained that the property would in the event of abolishment revert to the heirs of John R. Bolles with all the buildings and improvements thereon, and urged the importance of the station for general naval purposes, reciting the present use of the station as a school of instruction for officers of the marine service and its future possibilities. He received many setbacks in his endeavor, as the naval department had fully resolved that the New London naval station must go, regardless of consequences, but he persevered and won.

Congressman Higgins is ever on the Congressman Higgins is ever on the Congressman Higgins is ever on the alert for the interests of the district he so ably represents and is also active on all matters of national importance. His ability and earnestness have brought him influence with his fellow congressmen and with the several departments of the government, which is to the advantage of his constiuents.

Favors Medical Inspection of Public Schools.

Dr. G. W. Osborn, president of the Bridgeport board of health, would have a law passed by the present legislature making medical inspection of the public schools a permanent thing throughout the state. He would not have a matter of this kind remain dependent upon the appropriation of a board of apportionment. Not only would he have thorough annual medical inspection of all pupils, but also such medical examination of teachers and janitors as would be calculated to help protect the children from possible contagion.

GOD KEEP TOU. God keep you, friend! We may not All that this parting means for you and me.
And what things correwful and sad may be
In wait for our uncertain steps, and so God keep you, friend!

God keep you, friend! We may not By any strain of forward-peering eyes
Where our divided paths converge, and lies
That larger place where our two ways agree.
God keep you, friend!

God keep you, friend! Your leval heart
And strong, unfailing arm has helped me stand.
Where I had slipped unsteadled by your hand;
No strength have I to leave you as we part.
God keep you, friend!

God keep you, friend! Into his care More vigilant and tender still than Which petently through time and apace endures.

Do I, a weaking, trust you with this prayer.

God keep you, friend!

God keep you, friend? Your presence still, Emobling and encircling, frank and free, Above all fear and chance abides with me; For you—in weel and woe, through good and ill, God keep you, friend? —Alkernon Tassin, in Youth's Companion. VIEWS AND VARIETIES
